OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR

19 July 1973

MEMORANDUM FOR: The Honorable James R. Schlesinger
The Secretary of Defense

SUBJECT : Soviet and Chinese Aid to North Vietnam

1. At the WSAG meeting on Tuesday, 10 July, Dr. Kissinger asked the Agency to take a look at current patterns of and trends in Soviet and Chinese aid to North Vietnam. Attached is a copy of our response to that request. In forwarding it to Dr. Kissinger, we again noted the point raised orally at the 10 July WSAG: Our body of new evidence is slim, hence, much of our analysis is unavoidably based on speculative inference rather than hard data, which cannot be acquired under current collection restrictions.

2. At the request of the NSC staff, we are distributing this memorandum to the members of WSAG and their principals. As indicated below, within the Defense Department we are sending copies to Deputy Secretary Clements, Assistant Secretary Hall, Admiral Moorer, and Admiral de Poix.

George A. Carver, Jr.
Special Assistant for Vietnamese Affairs

Attachment:

Copies to:

Deputy Secretary Clements, w/att. #5
Assistant Secretary Hall, w/att. #6
Admiral Moorer, w/att. #7
